CONSULTATION ON ACCESS TO JUSTICE

On 23 September 2009, Attorney-General, the Hon Robert McClelland MP, launched the Government's Access to Justice Report and a 'Strategic Framework for Access to Justice' to guide future policy and reforms in our civil justice system.

People can participate in the consultation process through:

- written submissions
- online comments, and
- consultation forums.

Written submissions commenting on the report can be e-mailed to a2jconsultation@ag.gov.au or mailed to:

Access to Justice Division
Attorney-General's Department
3-5 National Circuit
Barton ACT 2600

Online comments can be submitted through www.ag.gov.au/a2jcomment.

Written submissions and online comments can be submitted until 30 October 2009.

Consultation forums will be held in Melbourne, Canberra, Wollongong and Brisbane the week commencing 12 October 2009. For more information about the meetings, please go to www.ag.gov.au/a2j.
