2012 Annual Gala dinner with

The Hon Peter Costello AC "Our finest Treasurer ever"

In my maiden speech to Parliament in 2008 I described my then colleague, Peter Costello, as 'our finest Treasurer ever' and that this position was under no present threat. This remains the case today.

Peter's leadership of our national economy over eleven and a half years created an environment where Australian businesses could grow and prosper. Real wages grew by more than 20%, more than 2 million Australians found new jobs and he left our nation's finances with more than $40 billion in the bank, after paying back Labor's $96 billion debt. By contrast, Labor has produced record debt, record deficits and declining productivity. Not a day passes when I do not wish Peter Costello was still running economic policy in this country.

At this event you will have the rare opportunity to hear Peter's candid and sharp insights into what is needed to return our country to the sound economic policies that were the mainstay under his stewardship of our economy. I hope to see you there.
